Thursday 15th ^{we} went about 2 mile this side of the Cove there we put up our tents there on Sunday the 20th we Marched long Shamongh over the Rock and Stones between two Mountain then we returned on Sunday 23 July Thursday 24 we lay still at Shamongh on Friday the 25 we come to Sahinton Plains —
Our Intended March is to visit Philadelphia & not continue further.

Later on the 26th we moved to Montross the mile beyond on Sunday the 27th we moved on Monday the 28th we Marched to the River and camped the same to the right I have received a letter — on Saturday 29 of the month I came to Germantown in the morning

On Sunday June 29th Rain Little Thursday we had hard snow of them in the evening the Regals left Bombay where we arrived on 1st July and on 3rd July we subject to morning storm with whole Army —

Arrived on Thursday the on Friday Jacob Vanderhoff came to my tent at Morristown he being that had ~~an arrow~~ nearly been taken ^{by the 5th of July} later. Daniel was with me. And so we now we are at Morristown with way the boat will be ^{carried} by the 1st of August which way the Major's order I have heard of.

on Wednesday. From 10 o'clock on Friday 11 July we went from Mornston to Barnstaple we did not reach there the first day and the second evening. From there on Saturday 12 July it Rained [and in my Bondage on our march after work of one of the Adel tree Branch we having only a wagon, we were not sleep but a little will hammered you together with but a small the company in some place

There is twenty Boats is carrying long with the Army—in our march from A. Morris town

Magaler got 3 field pieces from our people.

on Saturday Jacob Bower Captain of Lancaster laid with the me in my tent. He says Coey Garrison Battalion is at present at Middle Brook or Spence from seeing they have done this but they have had little now done

at such a time they dont like people out of town they may be as it will for they dont know what and little or nothing at any time we had no such

to the center he would take them part on every occasion on 17 of June we ^{ordered} put the horses in the waggon we expect to move

on the 12 June appointed waggon master in general

with it was on Sunday morning the 19 of June the wind cold and it was frost in the part

on Sunday the 19 June 1777 our army had possession of Brandywine but no plan

and we lost but few men the loss of the Hagerman we do not know at present
The day in evening Rain Little

and the Hagerman at the time when they came out to summed set and the time the on the 18 June to Brunswick and burnt several houses themselves that they did not know they destroyed all plan and took the people goods Trove of their horses cows sheep wine and the houses then left even not one they
rice
